Mostly A's: Lorde, *Solar Power

You're laid-back, in-demand, always on trend, but probably a little controversial — maybe your self-care, good-vibes obsession feels a little preachy at times? The bottom line is that you're not afraid to make waves. Keep spending time at the beach and make Virgo season a time for growth and reflection.

Mostly B's: Billie Eilish, *Happier Than Ever

Simply put: you're a bad bitch. You might have gone through something of a personal transformation recently, and you've come out way better on the other side. God forbid anyone crosses you now — you're unbothered, maybe a little unhinged, and entirely focused on your own happiness.

Mostly C's: Angel Olsen, *Aisles

Whether everyone else knows it or not, you're the coolest one in the room. You've always stuck out a bit from everyone else and aren't afraid to do your own thing — and why wouldn't you, with taste as good as yours? You have an appreciation for the classics, but you're never derivative. Keep putting your own spin on things.
